

Chapter 13 Section2 (continued)

Scotland

- William Wallace helped Scotland become free from England
- Robert the Bruce: Scottish king
- Robert Burns: Scottish poet
- Auld Lang Syne
- Walter Scott: wrote Rob Roy and Ivanhoe
- Robert Louis Stevenson: wrote Robinson Crusoe, Dr. Jekyll & Mr. Hyde and Treasure Island
- Sir Arthur Conan Doyle: wrote Sherlock Holmes mysteries
- J.M. Barrie – wrote Peter Pan
- Adam Smith: wrote Wealth of Nations
- John Loudon McAdam: invented pavement
- Urquart Castle on the shore of Loch Ness
- St. Andrew's: birthplace of golf. What a stupid sport
- Haggis: National dish of Scotland, yuk
- Kilts: traditional highland dress
- Bagpipes: national instrument
- Sean Connery: Scottish actor, the original James Bond
- Ewan Macgregor

Wales

- Caernarfon Castle
- Snowdonia Mountains
- Anthony Hopkins
- Catherine Zeta-Jones
- Ioan Gruffudd
- Roald Dahl – wrote “Charlie & the Chocolate Factory”

Northern Ireland

- Religion is a huge problem
- Bloody Sunday
- IRA: Irish Republican Army. Terrorists trying to remove the British from Northern Ireland
- Bobby Sands: Protested British rule by going on a hunger strike while in jail
- Remember the Hunger Strikers
- Peace has been slow in coming to Northern Ireland
- The violence had dramatically decreased and home rule will eventually happen